Meet the Bees Virtual

Event

Livingston Place is pleased to welcome thousands of new residents after two beehives have been installed on the building rooftop on June 2. As part of implementing QuadReal's sustainable commitment, we have partnered with Alveole for this new initiative, and we are proud to take part in the great movement for more eco-conscious cities.

Please join us for a virtual event on Thursday, June 10 at 12 p.m. (noon) to learn more about the bees and their essential contributions to our ecosystem and food chain. Take a virtual peek inside a hive, experience a day in the life of a beekeeper and see what a typical beehive inspection looks like.

Please view this invitation to access the virtual event link and to find out more details.

Murals Celebrating Coast Salish Weaving

QuadReal is excited to be the presenting sponsor of a public artwork that will spark a remarkable transformation of Cathedral Square Park in the centre of downtown Vancouver. Blanketing the City is a public art mural series and Reconciliation process designed by acclaimed xʷməθkʷəy̓əm (Musqueam) weaver and graphic designer Debra Sparrow in collaboration with Vancouver Mural Festival.

Master weavers Chief Janice George, Sḵw̓xwú7mesh (Squamish) and Angela George, Selíłwítulh (Tsleil-Waututh) were invited to collaborate on the design of six landmark murals that will blanket concrete pillars in the park and explore Indigenous visibility in public spaces. The designs are all translations of the traditional weaving patterns of the three Coast Salish Nations. Each weaver was assigned two pillars to blanket with their designs, while the tops of the pillars are circled with a bracelet pattern that links all the weavers' artwork. Read the full story here.

Join us on June 9 for a special online event with artist Debra Sparrow, in celebration of National Indigenous History Month and the Vancouver Mural Festival.

Show your Pride!

June is Pride Month: an opportunity to celebrate diversity by promoting the equality and visibility of the two-spirit, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer/questioning (2SLGBTQ+) community of people. Virtual celebrations will take place throughout the month. Visit Pride Toronto for a month-long phygital festival, celebrating 40 years with a virtual calendar of educational workshops, activities, wellness days, and much more. Vancouver Pride and Pride Centre of Edmonton are also featuring online events for all to join. With the cities of Calgary and Montreal officially celebrating in August, the fun continues throughout the summer.

People & Planet: June's Environment Days

Move over Earth Month (April) and make way for June, jam-packed with environmental action days. From Clean Air Day on June 2 to World Environment Day on June 5, the overall theme is to connect and help restore our ecosystems.

Not sure where to start? Join us on June 8 for a podcast style webinar with WWF-Canada, in celebration of World Oceans Day. Bonus: there will also be colouring, prizes and no homework!

HAPPY Fathers DAY

For Father's Day (dad joke included)

Fun fact: Father's Day was first celebrated at the YMCA in Spokane, Washington on June 19, 1910. A lot has changed since then, but the tradition of doing something special with dad remains the same. This year, Father's Day takes place on June 20, and if you haven't already decided what to get dad, consider these unique, Canadian-made gift ideas. For adventure seekers, create an experience with dad.

We think the best gift of all is hearty laughter at a dad joke, or better yet, consider adding one to the list. This one is on us: Two guys walked into a bar. The third guy ducked.

Wellness Tip of the Month

Summer is here and with it, fresh veggies and fruit. Summer meals can offer a fresh take on old favourites by adding seasonal greens, adding fruit to sides, and introducing colour by purchasing (or growing) heirloom varieties. Looking for ideas? See three healthy and delicious summer recipes sure to impress. Enjoy!
